Jesse Fort, Manager of Credit
Tailors, Disappears
From City.

Police Are Looking For Typewriter Agent.

LEAVES HIS WIFE AND BABY.

With threats that he would be a corpse by 10 o'clock the next morning, Jesse Fort, local manager of the Credit Tailors, on Kentucky avenue between Third and Fourth streets, mysteriously disappeared from Paducah Monday night. An investigation into the books the past two days by E. J. Harvick, the new manager, shows an apparent shortage of between $150 and $200. The defalcations may probably run higher.

Fort, it is alleged, was lured by a young woman of the city. Declaring his girl had thrown him down, he wore a despondent look and made threats. He is said to have written his sweetheart a letter, telling her he would be no more at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The matter has been kept quiet since then, as it was thought Fort might return, but his continued absence resulted in an investigation into the books of the office. The police were told of his threats and disappearance, but so far the coroner has failed to discover a dead man.

Frank N. Moore, of Cairo, who operates a string of credit tailor establishments, will arrive here Saturday to look over the books.

Fort is 23 years old and came here about six months ago. For several weeks he had been paying attention to a young woman. His home is at Burns. The police have been unable to learn anything concerning his whereabouts.

Can't Find Bryan.

Although a vagrant or several cities in Tennessee and the south has been thrown out to apprehend him, the police department at Paducah is still at sea as to the route taken by G. A. Bryan, local manager of the Underwood Typewriter company, who absconded early Wednesday morning after embezzeling funds of the concern to the approximate amount of $2,000. Bryan was traced to Hopkinsville, where he boarded a train, presumably for Nashville yesterday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock. All trace of him from there was lost and the police of cities of that state and further south have been warned to keep a lookout for him.

Yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock M. E. Hoberts, of Louisville, district manager for the typewriter company, swore out a warrant against Bryan for embezzlement before Judge D. A. Cross at the city hall. This was done directly following a telephone message to the chief of police at Hopkinsville, who said Bryan had boarded the train just ten minutes previously, bound south.

All possible efforts to locate him up until 3 o'clock this afternoon were futile and the bonding company will not hesitate at any expense to cause his apprehension, according to Mr. Hoberts.

When Mr. Hoberts arrived Tuesday and found Bryan absent in his accounts he confronted him. Bryan confessed and agreed to make good all shortage. Promising to keep an appointment with Mr. Hoberts Tuesday night, Bryan went to the hotel, where he had been hoarding, and packed his grip. He left the hotel wearing a light suit of clothes and a light overcoat. That was the last time he was seen. It is presumed he kept himself hidden until time to catch the 1:30 o'clock north bound train early Wednesday.

A grip found at Union station by a cabby was taken to the Palmer House and found to be Bryan's. Inside was his light suit of clothes and it is the theory that he changed clothes in the toilet room at the station just before leaving, wearing a blue serge suit or black one away from Paducah.

Bryan's failure to meet Mr. Hoberts aroused the latter's suspicion and yesterday morning he consulted Chief James Collins, Detective Collins told Hoberts he had Bryan located and could get his hands on him in a few minutes if the company would agree to reimburse him for his services. As Mr. Hoberts was not authorized to offer any reward or go to any expense the matter was dropped until yesterday afternoon when the police were notified. Mr. Collins knew Bryan was in Hopkinsville.

In the meantime Detective Collins had recovered for J. A. Konetzka, a

Harmon Boom For President Will be Started In Chicago Tonight at Meeting of the Democratic Clubs

HOBBERS SHOT.
Joliet, Ill., April 7.—Three men were shot, one fatally, in a fight at Mason, Ill., today following the robbery of the Coal City bank by five masked men. They fled with $1,200. The wounded men deny complicity in the robbery. Police are holding them.

He Will be Unable to Attend
But Will Send Letter—Progressive and Reactionary Fight Over Iowa.

Chicago, April 7.—A presidential boom for Judge Harmon, for governor of Ohio, will be started in Chicago tonight at the banquet of Democratic league. Harmon will be unable to attend on account of the Ohio legislature being in session. He sent political letters to be read at the banquet.

The Iowa Fight.
Des Moines, Ia., April 7.—Former Lieutenant Governor Warren Garst today announced that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor against Governor B. F. Carroll. Garst will be backed by the Progressives. Senators Dolliver and Cummings will speak in every congressional district for him. It means war between the Progressives with Garst and the Regulars with Carroll for control of the next state convention.

Irrigation Bill.

Washington, April 7.—Senator Warren's bill authorizing the disposal of the surplus waters of government irrigation projects to private corporations was the subject of prolonged debate in the senate. Indeed, the consideration of this measure engrossed practically the entire session.

When Senator Warren moved to take up the bill no vote was cast in the negative, and it was believed that in view of the subsequent adoption of an amendment guaranteeing the rights of states in the matter of the control of streams within their borders, a compromise had been reached which would insure early action on the bill. Such did not prove to be the case.

The state's rights amendment was presented by Mr. Warren, who said it had been revised by Mr. Heyburn, who had successfully conducted two or three filibusters against the bill.

Heyburn Fights Measure.

Apparently at first mollified by the amendment, Mr. Heyburn ultimately took the position that it would be of no service, and vigorously denounced it as a subterfuge and delusion. He announced, however, that having practically exhausted himself he would not continue his opposition to the bill. The Idaho senator's submission to what apparently he had conceived to be the inevitable was not of long duration. Two or three other senators having given him encouragement to believe he had support on the floor, he renewed his opposition and denounced the measure in as vigorous terms as on any previous day.

When, later in the discussion, Mr. Heyburn stated that the bill had been dictated by the corporations, Mr. Warren denied such was the fact. With some degree of warmth he said: "I deny that imputation. I drew the bill as the result of a suggestion from a government official, and not in the interest of any corporation."

Much of the criticism of the bill by Senator Heyburn was directed to the omission of individuals from the list of those to whom the government may deliver water as provided by the bill. He contended that the effect would be to prevent the use of water for domestic or mining purposes. Denouncing the bill as "a legislative

Miss Mahoney Was Stopped By Police

While accompanying Little Bonnie Verlines, the girl who ran away from a shantyboat to escape cruel treatment, to a girls' school in Louisville, Miss Agnes Mahoney, who was the district nurse for the Charity club, was detained by the Louisville police Monday until she established her identity. She was suspected by the police as an agent for the "white slave" traffic, and was held pending investigation. By letters in her possession, Miss Mahoney convinced the police of her purpose with the girl, and she was released.

Miss Mahoney left Paducah early Monday morning for New York after completing her work in the city. In order that Little Bonnie Verlines might have the advantage of an education, kind hearted ladies in the city arranged for the girl to be placed in a Presbyterian girls' school in Louisville. Miss Mahoney took her Louisville and placed her in the school. The girl is intelligent, and expressed a desire to secure an education, and she was placed in the school for three years.

HUNGRY RUNAWAY YOUTH
RETURNS TO HIS HOME.

Chief of Police Henry Slugery received a letter this morning from N. M. Russell, of Hartford, canceling a reward of $25 for the restoration of his 13-year-old son, Paul Russell, who disappeared from home March 20. The lad returned home yesterday, hungry and without money. A few days ago the police here received a circular with the boy's photograph and description, offering $25 reward.

Mrs. W. R. Jones, of Bridge street, is seriously ill at her house.

His Conduct.

Roosevelts Start on Second Honeymoon.

REPORTERS ARE LEFT BEHIND.

Rome, April 7.—There is semi-of-ficial authority for the statement today that the Pope will send a letter to Cardinal Merry Del Val regarding the Vatican incident. If he can find a way to do so without arraigning the cardinal's conduct too severely. The Pope regards the breach of negotiations between Roosevelt and the Vatican, as almost regrettable incident of his career. Cardinals believe Merry Del Val committed a blunder, and should be reprimanded from authority.

Hoosiers Leave.
Spezia, April 7.—The Roosevelts made a trip from Rome in a special train. They will begin their second honeymoon today. They will retrace the route taken following their marriage, a quarter of a century ago. They have left the correspondents at Spezia. The colonel promised to write a brief account of his doings each day. They leave under idyllic conditions for a romance.

HOFFSTOT GOES TO PITTSBURGH

PRESSED STEEL MAGNATE WILL ANSWER TO HIRBURY IN-DICTMENTS.

New York, April 7.—Frank N. Hoffstot, president of the Pressed Steel company, is ready to go to Pittsburgh to face the indictment. It is rumored that District Attorney Whitman will ask the grand jury to indict Hoffstot here, as he is alleged to have passed alleged bribe money. Hoffstot refused to discuss the Pittsburgh situation, Adrian H. Larkin, attorney for Hoffstot, said, "Mr. Hoffstot is innocent." Later he added, "This indictment business on the part of an overzealous district attorney has become a farce. He said he has been informed that the Pittsburgh grand jury is illegally constituted as the foreman is not a resident of the county.

Hoffstot Must Appear.
Pittsburgh, April 7.—Hoffstot will be arrested unless he obeys the order of the court and appears before the grand jury, according to First Assistant District Attorney Seymour today. He said he will give him a chance to show up. Hoffstot's attorney, William B. Rodgers, said he is going to New York tonight to confer with the banker and will know then if he intends to fight extradition.

The city administration yesterday gave tacit endorsement to at least one of the demands of the thousand girl striking tobacco workers, when Mayor Hend Instructed the health department to send inspectors to the tobacco plants to look into the sanitary conditions which have been included in the reasons for the walkout. The inspectors will ascertain the size of the rooms, the air space, the number of windows, and of people working in each room. The dressing rooms and drinking supply will be examined and if conditions are not proper changes will be ordered at once.

Seventh District Primary.

Frankfort, Ky., April 7.—The Democratic congressional committee of the Seventh Kentucky district, now represented by Congressman Cantrell, at a primary to be held on June 25. Besides fixing the date, the call provides that the expense shall be $3,000, and that each candidate shall put up that sum by June 10. If there is more than one candidate, the pro rata share of each will be returned to him. The committee is directed to meet in Lexington June 14, and if there is but one candidate at that time the committee is empowered to call the primary off and declare him the nominee.

There has been no definite announcement of any candidate to oppose that of Cantrell.

Tobacco Strike.

Louisville, Ky., April 7.—The local teamsters' union took a hand in the strike of the stemmers in the American Tobacco company's factories here and prevented the removal of a large amount of leaf from one of the closed factories. The American Tobacco company tried to move several dray loads of tobacco from their Thirty-first and Walnut street plant, presumably to the depot for shipment to Richmond, Va., when girl strikers stopped the drays and entreated the drivers to refuse to handle the goods.

The drivers promised to take their teams to the barns after handling the first load and proceeded down town, only to be stopped five blocks from the factory by a representative of the teamsters' union, who ordered the drays returned with their loads to the tobacco factories.

There were several disturbances in the tobacco district during the night, but no serious trouble.

Inspect Plant.

The city administration yesterday gave tacit endorsement to at least one of the demands of the thousand girl striking tobacco workers, when Mayor Hend Instructed the health department to send inspectors to the tobacco plants to look into the sanitary conditions which have been included in the reasons for the walkout. The inspectors will ascertain the size of the rooms, the air space, the number of windows, and of people working in each room. $1,000 Without an Owner.

Winchester, Ky., April 7.—A mandate of the court of appeals, filed in the office of the circuit court clerk here yesterday, recites an interesting case and at once deprives the sum of $1,000 of an owner.

A few years ago, immediately after
Mrs. J. B. Marcus had brought suit for damages for $100,000, against the Vincennes Bridge company,

Albert Mitchell, who is connected with the Vincennes Bridge company, was in Paducah this morning, preparing for a resumption of the work on the Clark's river concrete bridge.

It is expected that Foreman Decker will arrive in a few days and the work begin again after discontinuing the construction during the winter.

It was Mr. Mitchell, County Judge
T. W. Patterson of Calhoun county, who told him about the McCracken county trouble. While in the city this morning he learned of the appointment of a committee by the federal court to investigate the charges of illegal bribery. He told friends that he and Mr. Oliphant would appear before the committee.

A reward of $60 has been offered for the apprehension of Jim Hunt,
by City Marshall Joe Shelby at La-Center, Ky. The Paducah police have been asked to keep a lookout for Hunt, who is described as weighing 150 pounds, 5 feet 6 inches in height and with a peculiar expression.

Meanwhile the $1,000 seems to belong to no one.

CONSERVATION'S FRIENDS UNITE

WESTERN CONGRESSMEN WILL JOIN ON NEW BILLS.

To Be Introduced in Both House and Senate—President Given Power.

TO INAUGURATE LEGISLATION.

Washington, April 7.—As a direct result of the conservation dinner at the White House last night, members of congress from public lands states and others who hold membership on the public lands committees of the Senate and House are endeavoring to reconcile their differences over proposed conservation legislation.

While no measure introduced has obtained the support of a majority of the members of the two committees, it was said today that the Western members are in substantial agreement concerning a new bill for the withdrawal of public lands for various purposes. Such a measure, it is said, is to be introduced simultaneously in both the Senate and House, which will include the following features:

Authorizing the president to withdraw public lands in the United States and Alaska for public uses or for examination and classification to determine their character, use, value and disposition.

Providing that such examination and classification shall be promptly initiated after withdrawal; classification shall be concluded as soon as possible, and the lands shall then be restored to appropriation and disposition under the law applicable thereto.

Authorizing the president to make withdrawals pending the submission to Congress of recommendations for legislation.

Requiring the secretary of the interior to support all withdrawals at the beginning of the next regular session of Congress after date thereof.

Ratifying and confirming all withdrawals heretofore made and now existing.

Providing that all withdrawals shall remain in force until revoked by the president or by an act of Congress.

OHIO RIVER WORK.

MILLION DOLLARS AVAILABLE AT ONCE AN YEARLY SUMS THEREAFTER TO COMPLETE PLAN.

Washington, April 7.—The forthcoming rivers and harbors bill will carry a total of $1,650,000 for the Ohio river.

Of this amount $1,150,000 is cash and $3,000,000 is authorized, with $500,000 cash for continuing improvements. The bill will be reported the latter part of the week.

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, a member of the committee, said today the bill is a pronounced step forward.

"There was general feeling in the committee," Senator Simmons, "that an annual river and harbor bill was essentially necessary to put our waterways in condition to handle our growing commerce. In a way the bill is carrying out one of the platforms of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, that there should be a bond issue to take care of the improvements in the event that current revenues were insufficient to make an appropriation of $50,000,000 for ten years possible."

Money Needed Every Year.

"While we have not issued bonds we have recognized in the committee the necessity for an annual river and harbor bill. The bill recognizes meritorious projects and appropriate liberally for them to the end that they may be completed within reasonable time, and until they are completed the annual feature of the bill will continue."

"One of the first fruits of this new system will be a more liberal treatment of the waterways and a well-defined plan for their improvement conditioned upon a favorable report from the War Department."

County Road Work.

County roads were the topic of discussion yesterday afternoon at the closing session of the fiscal court. It is the intention of the court to improve as many of the roads as possible, but the magistrates are limited financially and the money in the road and bridge fund was distributed to the different departments so as to leave the largest possible amount for the extension of the mileage of gravel roads. The distribution of the fund to the different departments is not arbitrary, but can be changed if necessary by an unexpected heavy expense in any department.

Petitions for the graveling of the Cairo, Minkville, Grahamville and Said roads have been received, while petitions are being prepared for the graveling of the Massie, Lovelaceville and Ragland roads. The property owners abutting the roads will pay half the expense of the graveling and the county the other half. For this purpose the county has set aside $14,000, which will mean that about 30 miles of roads can be gravelized, as the average cost of a gravel road is approximately $1,000 a mile. It was agreed that most of the graveling was to be done in the Seventh and Eighth districts, where the mileage of improved roads is small.

Bridge Debt.

With this year's apportionment for the road and bridge fund the fiscal court had to meet a debt of $11,000 on the Clark's river concrete bridge, which was inherited from the last administration. The apportionment is subdivided as follows: Emergency, $5,000; repairing of gravel roads, $2,500; culverts, $2,000; sewers, $1,000; graders and machinery, $500; Clark's river bridge deficit, $11,000; graveling dirt roads, $14,000. The sum of money in the road and bridge fund is $37,000.

Public drinking fountains will not be established in the county, as the recommendation of the road committee was rejected yesterday afternoon by a vote of 5 to 3. Magistrate Ross was the champion for the fountains, and in an eloquent speech said that the watering places are public necessities. He said that the county has been settled up so that it is no longer possible to secure water from streams, as the fences keep transients from trespassing on private property. When put to a vote Magistrate Hinchliffe, Spitzer and Rose voted in favor of the establishment of the fountains.

Power was given the road committee to close deals for the purchase of land for the purpose of using it for a right-of-way. Often the committee arranges with the owner of property to purchase it at a certain figure, but when it is placed before the fiscal court the owner has increased the price, and the committee seeks to avoid this trouble. The right to purchase timber and gravel was left with the county road supervisor, but when he feels he needs the advice of the road committee a conference will be held.

The question of selecting a set of rules governing the county poorhouse from two sets of rules now on file, was deferred until the next meeting.

A letter from the Kentucky Children's Home society was received and filed.

The recommendation of the road committee for the county attorney to compile a list of the county roads with the width of the right-of-way was rejected. County Attorney Clay said it would require a year's work through the records in order to secure the data.

The court adjourned until the regular May meeting.

Beautiful Gregory Heights

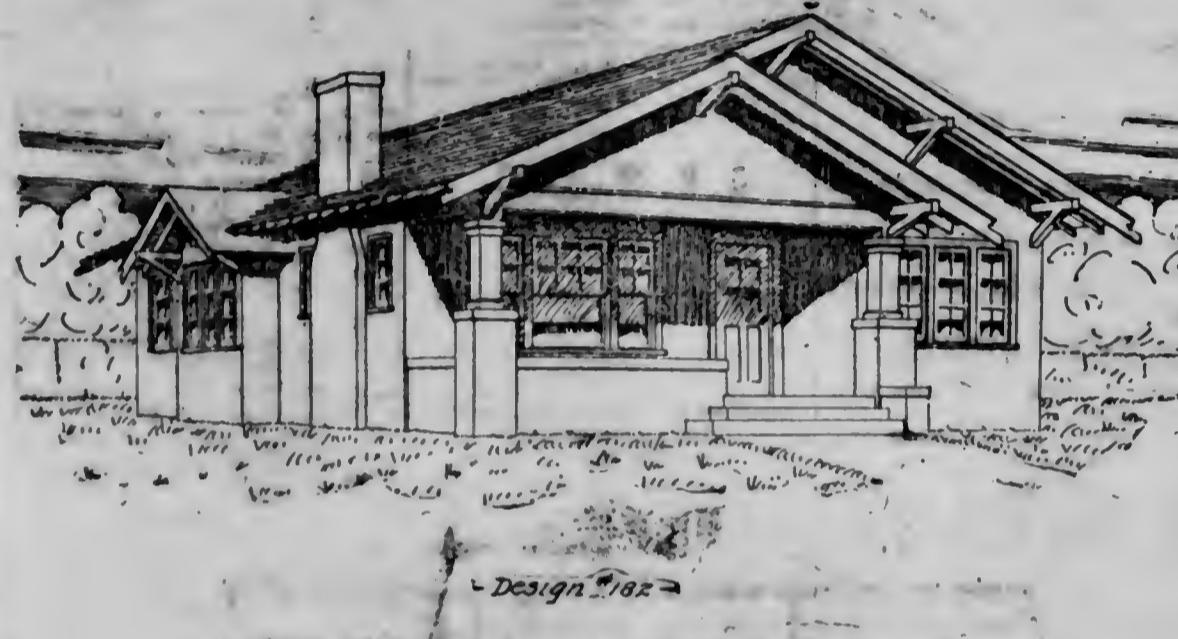

No matter what character of home you build, the location will mar or make its attractiveness. Gregory Heights is truly the ideal location in Paducah for a home. High, rolling ground that is easily drained; off, away from the dirt and grime and noise of the city; with the street car at your door; pure, bracing, health-giving fresh air in plenty, ALL the time; these are but few of its attractions.

WE SELL ON EASY TERMS AND REASONABLE PRICES

HINTS FOR PROSPECTIVE BUILDERS

This is a great era of home-building in Paducah. Everybody seems to be realizing that the best home is a home they own and have built as they want it. For the benefit of our readers who are considering building and are still undecided as to the style or price of home to build, we are, each week on this page, showing original, attractive and practical illustrations of modern moderate priced houses that will offer helpful suggestions and give a fairly accurate idea of what it will cost to build.

A $2,000 Bungalow

To the prospective home builders interested in the Bungalow type of dwelling, this plan today should particularly appeal. The size of this Bungalow is 32x52 feet, and is for six rooms and bath. The estimate is for frame and shingle construction, and includes plumbing, grates, mantles, etc. The interior finish is to be in pine stained to suit, the living room and dining room having heavy beamed ceilings. Cellar under kitchen and rear bedroom. Attractive features of this plan are many, as a study of the floor plans will prove, and tend to make it one of the most practical and desirable dwellings of its type that one could build at anywhere near the estimated figure, $2,000.00.

Complete plans and specifications, in duplicate, for building this house, may be secured from this office for $25.00. For alterations, making additions or reversing plans a slight extra charge will be made, dependent as to the amount of extra work involved.

DAILY THOUGHT.
Too many people's idea of a friend is someone they can impose upon.

We know just how Michigan feels—half dry.

Yesterday congress granted to Theodore Roosevelt the franking privileges for his messages. There was a time when congress wouldn't turn over its hand to give him free expression of his ideas.

"Hell Raising Teddy" the Louisville Times calls him; but we're all mighty proud of Teddy just the same.

We pause to inquire if Mount Etna has given up in despair since Roosevelt reached Rome.

A southern Illinois girl picked a dynamite cartridge with a hat pin. Now, it will never get well.

Four bandits entered a bank in a Pittsburgh suburb and killed the president and cashier. Press dispatches say that all suspicious characters are being rounded up today. We thought they usually waited until a meeting of the general council in Pittsburgh to do that.

Sixty applications were submitted to a maternity hospital at Atlanta, when bids were invited for two girls. Hero's another subject for J. J. Hill to give his views on.

Will R. Scott in the Third District Review refers to April as the birth month of great peoples: Thomas Jefferson, Washington Irving, William Ellery Channing, Henry Clay, John Lothrop Motley, Samuel F. H. Morse, Ulysses S. Grant and James Monroe. There is one other birthday in the month, which he failed to mention, and which modesty on our part forbids us to even hint at.

POLITICAL LESSONS.

"Democracy has learned a lesson," is the popular introduction for editorials in the Democratic press of the state about the political situation. A definition would be valuable. The New York World arouses nation-wide interest in the query "What is a Democrat?" We would ask what does the press mean by the Democratic party?

If it refers to the thousands, who vote the ticket, and take no other part in the party's affairs, we suggest that they need no lesson. Voting the party ticket, as long as they decently can, they vote the Republican ticket when good citizenship demands it of them.

If the press refers only to those active agencies, which in the end combine to select the ticket and formulate party policies, we suggest that those men can learn no lesson, because the results they achieve are always compromises between interests directly concerned in the character of government and officials.

Yet it is to these very agencies the papers eventually refer; for their conclusions limp lamely among such names as J. C. W. Beckham, John Whalen, Ollie James, John Allen, Urey Woodson, et al. That is the Democratic party, when nominations are to be considered. The Democratic party after the nomination is a very different thing. Votes are wanted then, not candidates.

What we say of the Democratic party in Kentucky is true of all other parties, everywhere. We wish to point a general principle with a particular case.

When these men get together, they may consider voters, in reference to the candidate who can attract most of them; but the voters' theories and ideals of government do not enter into the situation at all. There are particular purposes to be subserved, elements to be pleased, interests to be protected, as well as their good will to be courted. So popular government thrives in spite of, rather than by reason of our democratic systems, and democracy is a temporary failure in municipalities.

If the voters had a voice in the selection of public officials, we have confidence enough in the people to believe they would use good judgment. They do not have it in primaries and conventions to the extent good government demands. They are divided by party lines then. The interests intrinsic to good government are never divided by party lines, and hence, are the balance of power, especially in local contests.

We assume there is little difference outside of superficial prejudices, between patriotic Democrats and patriotic Republicans. They desire the same kind of government, they desire the same kind of men, and, when their party spirit is not aroused by designing politicians, they desire the same measures.

They can have a deciding voice in the selection of their officials when names are placed on the ballot by petition, and the number of names necessary on the petition made reasonable. Two hundred good citizens pledged to a certain course could swing every election in Paducah; but pledges are not necessary, either in city or state, when we dispense with much of our corrodig party machinery.

Kentucky Kernels

Both factions of Tennessee Democracy assure the voters twice a day—one in the evening papers and once in the next morning's papers—that all they desire is fair play. The only difficulty seems to be their inability to agree on what constitutes fair play.

HANDING IT TO TIE A. P.

As to the election in Illinois, every hit of information obtainable by the Associated Press up until 2 o'clock yesterday morning was published in Wednesday morning's paper. — News-Democrat, April 7.

If anyone has a copy of Wednesday morning's Commercial-Appeal, Cairo Bulletin, Louisville Courier-Journal or Herald, Cincinnati Enquirer, or a Chicago or St. Louis paper, he will acquire some information as to the truth of this bare-faced statement, that the Associated Press didn't handle the results of Tuesday's Chicago elections on Tuesday night.

This is what the News-Democrat had on the subject Wednesday morning:

Incomplete returns of the local option issue vote in 240 cities and towns throughout Illinois today, indicated substantial gains for "wets" throughout the state.

The Rev. Father J. F. McKearney, pastor of Catholic church at Stanley, resigns to go west for his health.

Goldie Daughert and Pearl Salmon, who ran down and killed James Corle at Henderson, sentenced to reformatory school.

Warehouse of D. S. Gay, at Winchester, burned and $15,000 worth of hemp destroyed.

The Rev. Father J. F. McKearney, pastor of Catholic church at Stanley, resigns to go west for his health.

Goldie Daughert and Pearl Salmon, who ran down and killed James Corle at Henderson, sentenced to reformatory school.

It is not generally known that the postoffice clerks are not obliged to make change when purchases are made at the business place of Uncle Sam. It seems a queer rule, but it is on the back of Uncle Sam and every postmaster can entrench himself behind it at any time. A clerk at the stamp window can require the purchaser to furnish the exact change when purchasing stamps, but it is not done because the postoffice clerks are glad to accommodate the people, and to get rid of so much change. If a person wanted fifty cents worth of stamps and offered $1 in payment the postmaster could require the purchaser to do without the stickers or else get change. Another law of the postoffice department is that a postoffice employee is not compelled to take more than 25 pennies for any one purchase.

A COMPARISON.

Yesterday we called attention to the fact that our local contemporary, which overlooked the local option election in 240 Illinois towns and the Central City cyclone of the night before, put a "special" line on a Rome story, which was then 48 hours old. This morning, impudently or ignorantly, or both, the paper admits that its "special" line was placed above associated press articles. We do not know the rules of the associated press, governing its morning papers; but some associations would fine a member, which would do such a thing. "Special" has a precise meaning in newspaper parlance; it means an article sent by the paper's own local correspondent from any place. It matters not whether the story comes by telegraph, telephone, mail or word of mouth; it is "special" if it is prepared and intended for that particular paper, and not for a group of associated papers, such as the associated press. Just so, the words "staff correspondence" mean that the article was written by a member of the paper's regular salaried staff.

Dodging the point, the morning paper launches into a long explanation of the system of the associated press. If it is so proud of its connection, then, why does it not place over its articles "By Associated Press?" We offer this as a suggestion in the interest of truth and honest journalism.

As for its service, we know how much it goes by telegraph. On its front page today, for instance, it has five telegraph stories at the top of the page. Four of these appeared in the Evening Sun of yesterday, with big heads on them. Two of them happened Tuesday night, and were covered by all the big morning papers Wednesday. Column one contains a story about Roosevelt dismissing reporters and starting for Genoa, which we had at the top of column seven yesterday. Column four contains the story of the Illinois election, which took place Tuesday and appeared Wednesday morning in all first class papers, and was handled by The Evening Sun yesterday in a column and a half story on the seventh page. Column six contains a story about the president cancelling his speaking engagement at Indianapolis, which The Evening Sun covered yesterday on the front page. Column seven contains a story about the Central City cyclone, which happened Tuesday night, and should have been covered by the morning paper of Wednesday. We had the story under a two column head on the front page yesterday and we are pleased to observe that our morning contemporary did not have the nerve to place a "special" line over this article; because it was clipped verbatim from the noon edition of the Louisville Evening Post, which arrived here last night.

It is all right, perhaps, to boast about the news gathering facilities of the particular press association, to which one subscribes for a limited service; but the proof of the pudding is in the eating, and the proof of the news service, is what you present for the perusal of your subscribers. The Evening Sun is connected with the United Press associations, the best and most complete day service in the world, designed especially for evening papers with a corps of correspondents trained to brief, crisp expression. Its men are stationed in every city in the world. In addition to this service, The Evening Sun has local correspondents in Kentucky and Southern Illinois to supplement its regular press service. We get more words by telegraph every day than the morning paper, and actual comparison, such as we have made today, indicates the superiority of our service.

Mature Musical Afternoon.

The Matinee Musical Club met Wednesday afternoon in regular session at the Woman's Club house. The approaching Biennial and Festival in Cincinnati was discussed informally. It is possible 12 or more of the club members will attend both events. The big Biennial will immediately follow the May Festival this year. Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells, president of the club, is the delegate from the Matinee Musical Club to the Biennial and Mrs. George H. Hart is the alternate. Both will attend.

A beautiful miscellaneous musical program was presented during the afternoon. Mrs. George B. Hart presided in the absence from the city of the regular leader, Mrs. Wells. S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

It is a generally recognized fact that medicines taken from the botanical kingdom are better adapted to the delicate human system, and safer, in every way, than those composed of strong mineral mixtures.

In the early settlement of this land, our forefathers were obliged to procure their medicines from Nature's great laboratories of forest and field. They searched out and compounded the different vegetable materials into teas, concoctions and medicines. That these pioneers found the most potent and valuable of the roots, herbs and barks placed at their disposal, is abundantly proven by the fact that the great majority of them were blessed with rugged health. They cured their diseases and were enabled to do the great preliminary work of civilization because the remedies they used were Nature's remedies, and specially adapted to the needs of humanity.

Among the very best of these vegetable preparations is S.S.S., a medicine made entirely of roots, herbs and barks in such combination as to make it the greatest of all blood purifiers and the finest of all tonics. S.S.S. does not contain the least particle of mineral in any form, and is absolutely a safe medicine for any one to use.

While purifying the blood this great vegetable remedy builds up and strengthens every portion of the system. S.S.S. cures Rheumatism, Cataract, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, hereditary taints, and all other diseases and disorders caused by impure or polluted blood.

As a tonic S.S.S. is unequalled. It invigorates every portion of the system, and the healthy blood it creates largely assists in overcoming any derangement of the digestive system. If you are suffering from any blood trouble, or need a tonic to build up your constitution, you could do no better than to take S.S.S., a medicine that is in no degree harmful. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

Suffered Miserably

Cardui Helped Her

"I suffered miserably," writes Mrs. Mattie L. Bishop, of Waverly, Va. "Very often I would have to go to bed until it wore off. Everything I ate made me miserable and I could not even wash the dishes after a meal. My husband begged me to try CARDUI, but I had tried so many medicines I didn't want to. However, for his sake I tried CARDUI and before I had taken one bottle I felt all right. I can now do all my work and recommend CARDUI to every woman."

Are you one of the thousands of women who suffer as Mrs. Bishop suffered? Don't be discouraged—take CARDUI, the woman's tonic. It has relieved thousands, when other remedies have failed. You owe it to yourself to try this great remedy, for it is only reasonable to believe it will help you, too, since it has benefited so many others.

CARDUI is a purely vegetable tonic, containing no injurious drugs, and therefore perfectly harmless and good for young and old. It acts gently on the delicate female constitution and leaves no bad after-effects.

Try CARDUI—it can't harm you—it will surely help you. At all druggists.

Oil With Asphaltum For Streets.

As the city of Paducah has experimented to some extent with what is known as the standard asphalt road oil, in order to determine the value of this product as a dust exterminator and street preserver, it may be of interest to the general public to know just what this product is.

Standard asphalt road oil is a manufactured product practically odoreless, containing from 35 to 50 per cent petroleum, asphalt, varying in percentage, according to the nature of the road to be treated. The petroleum asphalt in this product is the important feature. Experience and experiments have proved that asphalt properly laid and maintained assures the object, a dustless, durable road, apart from this quality of standard asphalt road oil as a building material, it has many other fine qualities, apart from this quality of features to recommend it. It produces as near as possible a perfect sanitary condition, exterminating to a certain extent the house fly and mosquito nuisance. Also, making it impossible for any kind of disease germ to live and multiply in a street so treated. It also saves wear and tear on all kinds of vehicles and machinery and wearing apparel by the extermination of fine particles of dust, grit and sand. It has also been proven by experiment that in cost it is actually cheaper than water sprinkling.

The writer would call attention to the differences between this product, which is manufactured to meet certain specifications, and crude oil, which has been used in some sections of the country with very good results, so far as the dust nuisance is concerned, but has no special value as a road preserver, and as the oil is light and evaporates quickly, making frequent applications necessary, thus making it too expensive for the average town or city to use.

JOE WEITLAUF IS TAKEN TO STATE REFORMATORY.

Joe Weitlauf, sentenced to two years in the state reform school for horse stealing, has been taken to Lexington by Mann Clark, special commissioner appointed in circuit court. Weitlauf was convicted and sentenced at the last term of the criminal court, but owing to the fact that the school was overcrowded, he was compelled to remain in jail until the new dormitory could be completed. Weitlauf stole a horse from his cousin, and skipped to Illinois. The boy says he has reformed, and is a model prisoner at the jail.

Welcome Words To Women

If, you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest square-deal medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills. The makers of

for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. Is this not a significant fact worthy of careful consideration?

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines sold by druggists for their peculiar weaknesses and ailments because it is

THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, is not anything like advertised secret compounds or patent medicines.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments and carefully adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside bottle-wrapper.

It's foolish—often dangerous to be over-persuaded into accepting a secret nostrum in place of this time-proven medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y.

CLIMAX IN THE GREAT EXPOSURE

PRESIDENT OF PRESED STEEL CAR CO. CHARGED.

He Paid Over $52,000 to Former Pittsburgh Councilman to Get His Banks Named.

THIS CAUSED A SENSATION

Pittsburgh, April 7.—The climax promised in the Pittsburgh graft exposure came with a presentation by the grand jury of a report in which it recommended the indictment of Frank W. Hoffstot, president of the Pressed Steel Car company, president of the German National bank of Allegheny and prominently identified with other banks, on the charge that he paid to Charles Stewart, a former select councilman, $2,500 as a bribe to influence the votes of councilmen to pass an ordinance naming three banks in which Hoffstot was interested as the official depositories of the city funds.

The alleged payment of money to Stewart was made at New York in 1908, and the late James W. Friend, an officer of the Pressed Steel Car company, was an associate in the transaction.

The original plan of Friend was to obtain the services of William A. Blakely, who is now district attorney in charge of the graft prosecutions, as stake holder until the ordinance was passed, but Blakely declined to act and warned all parties of the criminality of the plan.

It is also charged that Hoffstot obtained from James N. Young, cashier of the Second National Bank of Pittsburgh, $21,000 to be paid to Stewart to insure the selection of the Second National as a city depository. The ordinance naming the city depositories was passed July 9, 1908, over the mayor's veto. While Hoffstot is best known as president and director of the Pressed Steel Car company, he is also president and director of the Canada Steel Car company, United of the Chicago and Calumet River Railway and Western Steel Car and Foundry company. He is also secretary and treasurer of the Southern Shore railroad.

Simultaneously with the grand jury report in open court came the plea of Emil Winter, president of the Workhouseman's Savings and Trust company that he had no defense to make to the charge that he gave $20,000 bribe to former Councilman Morris Elinstiel. When Winter appeared in court Judge R. S. Frazer, who is presiding in the graft cases, asked to be excused from hearing the plea, on account of his long and intimate friendship with Winter, judges Carnahan and Swearingen heard the formal plea. Sentence was postponed.

My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Folsom Kidney Pills and now sleep as sound as a rock. I eat and enjoy my meals, and my general condition is greatly improved. I can honestly recommend Folsom Kidney Pills and I know they will cure me."—Gillert's drug store.

Millionaire's Machine in Pere Marquette Freight Car.

Detroit Mich., April 7.—Doleatives here in company with John J. Burgess, of New York, found the latter's $4,500 automobile in a freight car in the Pere Marquette railroad yards. The machine was stolen in New York March 9 and Burgess had traced it to Kenosha and Milwaukee, Wis., and back to Detroit.

The theft is said to be one of many perpetrated in Chicago and New York by a young man and young woman who are said to have already taken automobiles valued at $20,000. The machine found here was sold to a Milwaukee lumber firm for $650. Burgess will probably start suit to recover the automobile, which he drove in New York for parties that hired him by the hour.

ONE CONDUCTOR WHO WAS CURED

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes about the same time every week concerning his cure from rheumatism. I used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effects, and the third bottle put me on my feet again. I am now walking like a star on the Lexington, Ky., Street Highway. It gave me more relief than any medicine I had ever used, and it does no harm. You can obtain it in any druggist by sending the urine acid from the blood. Gilbert's drug store.
